

Implementation Guideline of English Writing Training Course for the fiscal year 2011

Global COE Program: Global Center of Excellence for Dryland Science

October 25, 2011

1. Aim

To achieve the capacity-building of young scientists who will participate actively in relevant international communities, which is one of the aims of this Global COE Program, this program will offer the following English Writing Training Course as a support to the young researchers.

2. Intended for

Students who are enrolled in the Global Arid Land Science (Division of International Studies on Dryland Agriculture, the Course of Bioenvironment Science), the United Graduate School of Agricultural Sciences, the Doctoral Course Students who receive guidance from the professors who are engaged in the Global COE Program and Postdoctoral researchers and Assistant Professors of Arid Land Research Center

3. Capacity

Around 20

4. Period

Part I (lectures): December 12, 2011 – December 13, 2011 (2 days)

Part II (one-to one consultations): February 29, 2012 – March 1, 2012 (2 days)

5. Contents

It consists of lectures and consultations. Students who hope will write a paper in English during the course and will be given feedbacks from the lecturer.

6. Place

Arid Land Research Center, Tottori University

7. Costs

Tuition and materials costs will be covered by the Global COE Program.

8. Recruitment

Applicants should submit the Application Form. Selection will be held if the number of applicants exceeds the capacity.

9. Other

Students who attend the Part I can submit their papers and have feedbacks.